Invitation for event sponsorship

India Association of Tallahassee (IATLH) is a non-profit organization serving to foster friendship co-operation among the people from Indian sub-continent residing in Tallahassee area. IATLH was formed with a primary objective of providing a platform for social exchanges and showcase the rich cultural heritage of India. From a humble beginning to serve the cultural needs of the members, the association has grown into an organization with a sense of responsibility to the society, participating actively in the community events in the Tallahassee area. Joining hands with other ethnic organizations of people from other parts of Asia, as a major member of Asian Coalition, IATLH has widened the reach taking the activities to much larger audiences. IATLH participates regularly in the community events, rises to the occasion at time of social needs.

IATLH's cultural and social events are typically attended by hundreds of people from a wide cross section of the society, and having diverse needs for products and services. Every event, be indoor or outdoor, provides ample opportunity for businesses and service providers to reach out to a number of people at a single place. Businesses and communities need each other and have to work together to achieve a greater good. Businesses can extend the much needed financial help for the Association's events and IATLH can provide much needed platform to reach out to the members of community at a single place. IATLH intends to provide a platform for organizations to reach out to the members and promote their product or service, and use the proceeds of the sponsorship to meet a part of the expenditure for the events.
